Dear Bryan,

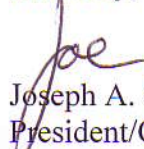

Thank you for designing our new site www.stuartmartinchamber.org. After many years and several sites we are convinced the chamber has achieved our goal, providing the maximum information to visitors and members alike. You have provided unique options for advertising clients while allowing the potential to portray Martin County to the world in a "user friendly" format.

You and your staff have been a pleasure to work with, making our transition to the new site painless.

We've received countless compliments and received accolades from our board and members alike. We are also enjoying an increase in sponsorship revenue. A favorite feature among staff is the on line reservations and payment option.

Thank you again for your professional service and creativity.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Catrambone
